Latinx Scholars Graduate School Fellowship

Established in 2013, the Latinx Scholars Graduate School Fellowship provides financial assistance to UW master's and doctoral students with a demonstrated commitment to Latinx communities. DACAmented and undocumented graduate students are encouraged to apply. The LSGSF is a one-time award of $1,500 dispersed in Winter quarter. If a student is paying non-resident tuition, this award can be dispersed in bi-monthly payments to reduce tuition from non-resident to resident rates.

Eligibility Requirements

- Enrolled full-time in a master’s or doctoral degree program at the University of Washington
- Demonstrated commitment to US Latinx communities through research, work, and/or service
- Ineligible if they hold an F1 or J1 visa or will be enrolled in a foreign study, study abroad, or international program or exchange

Application Process

Applicants must submit the following documents through the MyGrad awards management system.

Please login to submit the following:

1. Resume/CV
2. Personal Statement
   - Statement should not exceed two pages (double-spaced 12 pt. Times New Roman font with 1-inch margins). Statement should address the following:
     - How your personal commitment to Latinx communities has taken shape in your research, paid employment, or service
     - Your personal or professional goals and the ways in which your graduate education will enable you to sustain your engagement with Latinx communities
     - How this $1,500 award would impact your graduate education during Winter quarter
3. Letter of Recommendation
   - A one-page letter of recommendation should be submitted directly by the recommender. The recommender should address the following to the best of their ability:
     - The applicant's engagement with Latinx communities
     - The applicant's academic strengths and/or progress
     - Obstacles the applicant may have encountered in their academic or personal journey and how they have responded to these challenges

Deadline: Sunday, December 8th, 2019 at 11:59 PM PST.